

First Year Engineering Leadership Conference (FYELC)
University of Waterloo Engineering Society
October 24-25, 2014

Delegate Application

This fall, the University of Waterloo Engineering Society is hosting its inaugural First Year Engineering Student Conference (FYELC). The purpose of this conference is to give first year students the ability to develop personally and professionally, and to learn more about how to be successful in leadership positions on campus and in the work place. By attending this leadership and professional development conference, first year engineering students will be given the tools necessary to succeed throughout their university career and beyond.

By attending this conference you will be able to meet over 100 other first year students as well as numerous upper year mentors and leaders in a unique setting. Through various sessions, guest speakers, and team events, students will have the ability to network and meet new people, learn about how to get involved on campus and take on leadership roles, as well as to gain tips for being successful academically and in the work place. By providing you with this knowledge and information early in their university career, the Engineering Society hopes you will feel more confident in your ability to get involved outside of the classroom and to succeed.

The conference will begin at 5:30 pm on Friday, October 24th, 2014 and end at 5:00 pm on Saturday, October 25th, 2014. There will be an optional overnight sleepover component to the conference. Preference will be given to those living off-campus. To help cover the costs of food and delegate swag, there will be a fee of $10 for each delegate.

All applications, along with delegate fees in cash, must be handed in by October 21st, 2014 at 4:30 pm at the Orifice (CPH 1327). Delegate registration is first come, first serve.

This is an incredible experience for all first year Engineering students at the University of Waterloo. We look forward to reading all your applications. Thank you for your interest in FYELC 2014.

Cheers,

Vinay Padma, Ray Zhao, Helena Diao
FYELC 2014 Chairs
